

Consultant Profiles

Richard Sweeten Professional Experience

Richard has spent many years working with clients in the contracting field. He worked 10 years in the research and development field of automotive emissions products, both foreign and domestic. From this experience he has gained tremendous knowledge in helping people find solutions to specific issues. Richard's motivating drive for becoming a certified credit consultant is his desire to help people improve their lives. His love for educating people is what will get his clients to where they want to be in life.

Jaime Hershman Professional Experience With experience in the retail and education fields plus her years of consulting experience helping people improve their lives and achieve their goals, Jaime decided to become a certified credit consultant to help consumers become educated about credit and debt. By becoming educated, consumers can oftentimes prevent credit problems from occurring. If the consumers already have credit issues, being educated can prevent them from having the same problems again. By utilizing the State & Federal laws during the credit restoration process and by being pro-active, consumers can improve their credit report and credit scores. Jaime's highest priority is educating consumers, helping them improve their credit and giving them the tools they need to care for their credit in the future. A better and brighter future is what she is helping all her clients achieve!

